A Riverside Accident.

Yesterday morning about 5 o'clock, William Miller, a young man living in upper Benwood, met with a very painful accident at the Riverside tube works. In some manner the young man's shirt sleeve caught in the machine at which he was working, and his arm was pulled over, the thumb of his right hand catching in the cogs, and being literally ground off. He was taken to the Emergency hospital in Benwood, where the necessary medical aid was rendered by Dr. Alley.

A North End Runaway.

Late yesterday afternoon a runaway took place on North Market street that created considerable excitement for a time. A horse attached to a light buggy was standing near the intersection of Seventh street and it took flight and ran down Market street at a rapid rate.
Near Eighth street the buggy collided with a telegraph pole and the horse tore itself loose and continued on down the street, but was stopped shortly after. The horse was not injured, but the buggy was wrecked.

Grand Opera House band, bowling, dancing and other amusements. The division will be assisted in entertaining

CITY OWNERSHIP

Of Municipal Utilities to be Discussed at Syracuse

BY HUNDREDS OF DELEGATES

Attending the Convention of the League of American Municipalities.
Both Sides of the Question Will be Championed by Able Speakers.
Light and Water Especially Will Receive Attention.The League of American Municipalities, at its third annual convention, to be held at Syracuse, New York, September 19-22, will add materially to the information now in circulation on that most important of all municipal questions, the public ownership of light and water plants. Nothing has attracted more earnest public attention in recent years than the municipalities of public service industries in this country. As the movement has progressed it has had to meet a most substantial opposition from those who do not believe that industrial enterprise should be attempted by the government. Despite this serious opposition, the movement has grown rapidly throughout the United States, until political parties have considered it expedient to place in their local platforms the most emphatic declarations in favor of municipal ownership. This question has been paramount in political contests waged in New York, Chicago, New Orleans, San Francisco, Denver, Detroit, Milwaukee, Toledo and other large cities.That the municipalization of light and water plants has gained ground rapidly is shown by authentic statistics. Ten years ago there were scarcely more than a score of publicly owned electric light plants in this country; to-day nearly 400 municipalities own and operate works of this kind. In 1890 only 42 per cent of the water plants in the United States were publicly owned, and to-day the percentage is about 54.Municipal ownership, like all other questions, has two sides. The arguments both pro and con are well founded and intensely interesting. At the two preceding conventions of the League of American Municipalities this question has been discussed at length, but only the affirmative side has been presented.
The programme committee for the coming Syracuse convention have determined upon a plan that will bring forth the most comprehensive and fairest discussion of this question ever presented in this country. They have decided to set aside one whole day for the treatment of the subject, and to have it discussed from every standpoint. Formal papers presenting the arguments for municipal ownership are to be prepared and read by Mayor Henry V.Johnson, of Denver; Mayor Tafel, of Cincinnati; Mayor F. G. Pierce, of Marshalltown, Iowa, and Mayor J. R.
Robinson, of Colorado Springs, Col.
Papers against municipal ownership are then to be presented by Hon. M. A.
Guemunder, sinking fund commissioner of Columbus; Samuel Insull, president of the Chicago Edison Company; J. B.
Cahoon, of Elmira, N. Y., vice president of the National Electric Light Association, and M. J. Francisco, of Rutland, Vermont, who is probably the best known and most active of all the antagonists to municipal ownership. Following the reading of the eight papers an entire half day will be devoted to a general discussion of the question, to be led on the affirmative side by Mayor John Mac Vicar, of Des Moines, Iowa, Prof. Edward W. Bemis, the most conspicuous advocate of collectivism in this country; Mayor James D. Phelan, of San Francisco; Mayor R. H. Dudley, of Nashville, and others. The negative side of the discussion will be led by Allen Ripley Foote, the well known writer on economic questions; Robert P. Porter, the former census supervisor; General Andrew Hickenlooper, of the Cincinnati Gas and Electrical Company, and others.The day of the convention set aside for this interesting discussion is Wednesday, September 20, and it is very likely that the eyes of the country, figuratively speaking, will be on Syracuse for that day.

The Best Remedy for Flux.

ing that the half of one bottle cured

Bees Are Drones

compared with us these days. We are between two seasons—pushing out the remnants of summer—welcoming the advance guard of fall. The tables in our receiving room are groaning under the weight of the grandest stock of Clothing that has ever been produced—the lightweight Overcoats, the first thoughts, are ready. Almost in sight are the Suits that are to take the place of the thin, airy garments of to-day.
Nowhere else will you see such a congregation of fine fabrics—artfully designed—skillfully fitted—faultlessly tailored—as exclusive in pattern as they are elegant in finish.Created to our special order, will come a mighty host of novelties for the Boys' and Children's department. The Hats and Furnishings have each been tuned on the same chords of perfection and completeness. We have stood upon the shoulders of a successful past and grasped that perfection that knows no improvement. Congratulate yourselves—for our triumphs are the people's.
